

*Let my teaching
fall like rain
and my words
descend like
dew,*

*like showers on
new grass,
like abundant rain
on tender plants.*

From The Pastor's desk:

The word education means more than a course of study at college. Education begins with the infant in its mother's arms. While the mother is molding and fashioning the character of her children she is educating them. The memory of a mother's prayer with her hand laid upon the head may withhold our sons and daughters from yielding to temptation when sorely tried; and the power of love which binds the heart of the child to the heart of the mother has a determined power to hold him on the side of right. Little does the mother realize that her influence in the judicious training of her children reaches with such power through the ups and downs of this life, stretching forward into the future, immortal life. To fashion a character after the heavenly model requires much faithful, earnest, persevering labor; but it will pay, for God is a rewarder of all well-directed labor in securing the salvation of souls.
